He called for three cheers for Eryan,
which were given.

General Melver, ex-Congressman, detivered an appeal for union of the silver men and was given three cheers.

A resolution, offered by Towns of Minnerota that when the convention has completed the membership of the national committee as far as it can

It was nearly toclock before the actonomic assumed its usual appearance. Specificors were suightly more numerous than at previous sessions.

The delegates, as usual, came together made.

Mr. Hess, of Illinois, objected and a wordy wrangie followed. It ended in the adoption of the platform. It was decided by the chafrman that he recommendation was not a part of the platform and should be acted upon separately.

Mr. Page, of Nebraska, moved that General Warner said it would be necessary to nominate a candidate rather than to endorse, in order to avoid some of the peculiarities of state ballot laws.

D. E. Little, of Kansas, nominated William J. Bryan, of Nebraska. He said that through a long term of years this country had experienced a depression in business that had never before heen seen on this earth. He spoke of the denial of trial by jury to American citizens and of the platform adopted by the Republican national convention. At the conclusion of the invocation G. W. "Birst—The paramount issue at this time in the United Etates is indisputably the money question. It is between the gold standard, gold bonds and bank currency on the one side and the bimetallic standard and the other.

"On this issue we declare ourselves to be in favor of a distinctly American financial system. We are unalterably opposed to the single gold standard, and demand the impresants return to the constitutional standard of gold and silver by the restorated by this government, independently of any foreign power, of the unrestricted commonly at the ratio of 16 to 1, and upon terms of exact equality as they existed prior to 1873 the silver com to be a full-legal tender, equally with gold for all debts and ones, public and private, and we favor such legislation as will preven is for the future the demonstration of any kind of legal tender money by private contract.

Colonel L. C. Pace, of Nebraska, seconded the nomination of Mr. Bryan,
When he came into the hall, he said, he was met by the motto: "To the polls, ye sons of freedom," and he could scarcely refrain from exclaiming
"All hall," and when he saw the star of the flag he felt that the stars of heaven were over the homes of all the heaven were over the homes of all the country that needed a savior. He believed that the nomination was but formal, as every delegate had but one purpose—the nomination of William J. Bryan. He said that in the nomination of McKintey all the BANEERS OF EUROPE HAD A

HILL IS IN A BAD BOAT

A Speech Made in the Senate Replying to Tillman, Returns to Plague the Distinguished New York Senator. .

(Special to The Herald.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24 .-The Evening Times created something of a political sensation tonight, by rehashing a speech of Senator David B. Hill, delivered in the Senate last May.

It was in reply to Senator Tillman, who had dramatically threatened to bolt the Democratie convention if it resolved for Senator Hill rebuked Tillman for his disloyalty to Democracy and said in part:

"Sir, no matter what may be in come victory or defeat, come sunshine or shadow, come weal or woe, there is where I will be found again in behalf of whoever and whatever may be the national Democratic platform in the enmpaign. I do not expect to have my Democracy stained in so doing. I have confidence in the wisdom of the Democratic masses and the Democratic party.

"I hope that my friend, the Senator from South Carolina, and I will not part company at the door of the convention. I do not even know that I shall be there as a delegate, to represent state; I may be so honored, and I may not be so, but I will go there with no threats: I will be there with no mennees; I will go there expecting to have my sny, to speak my sentiments, and to abide by the result of the convention, when it shall be ended."

The publication of this speech today created a great deal of amusement among the politicians. who declare that there's only one thing for Hill to do-support the Bryan and Sewall ticket.
